Testing Updates...

Students in Kindergarten through 5th grade have already taken the FAST (Formative Assessment System for Teachers) assessments. The FAST assessments are taking the place of the NWEA MAP (Measures of Academic Progress) assessments that have been used in the past. Students in grades 1-5 took the FAST aReading and aMath assessments, and students in Kindergarten took the FAST earlyReading assessment. The aReading and aMath assessments are computerized tests that uniquely adapt to each child's level of learning based on his/her responses and performance; early Reading is administered individually. FAST assessments help to determine each child's instructional level and allow us to measure academic growth in the areas of math and literacy. Students in grades 1 and 2 will take aReading and aMath in the fall, winter, and spring; Kindergarten students will also take the earlyReading assessment in the fall, winter, and spring. Due to MCA testing in the spring, students in grades 3-5 will take aReading and aMath in the fall and winter. Additional FAST assessments may be administered depending on your child's academic need.
